FARPOINTE DATA MOBILE READER TESTED

FARPOINTE DATA CONEKT[®] MOBILE READER TESTED

By Brian Rhodes, Research Engineer, IPVM

As published June 13, 2019 on IPVM

California based Farpointe Data has been a significant OEM supplier of conventional access readers for years to companies including DMP, RS2, DSX, Keri, and Sielox, and recently announced mobile credentials and readers.

So how well does the product perform? We purchased a Farpointe mobile reader and tested multiple functions.

Spotted on the Street

Featuring best-in-class read range and speed, the P-300 Pyramid Series Proximity® Reader is a versatile workhorse. With its compact size, weather- and tamper-resistant epoxy potting, and installer-friendly design, the P-300 is ideal for almost any application.

The readers below were found standing guard at a 200,000 square foot shared working space in the heart of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. Home to a live-event industry production studio, restaurant, co-working space, fitness centers, and more, the facility utilizes P-300 readers on exterior and interior doors.

The P-300 Features:

- Outstanding read range and excellent read speed;
- Versatile mounting options, including metal mullion door and window frames;
- Support for industry standard interfaces;
- Farpointe's lifetime warranty.
